

BrigataFolgore.net is back online

Published on 30/01/2024

BrigataFolgore.net is back online with a completely renewed site, ready to become the reference point for Paratroopers of every Era. With a modern platform enriched by numerous dedicated sections, available to anyone who wishes to explore the history, missions, units, and activities of the Heroic Brigade.

With a modern platform and a series of dedicated sections, the site aims to be a true hub for anyone who wants to learn about the history, missions, units, and activities of the elite unit par excellence of the Italian Army and beyond.

Folgore, units and missions

The sections of the site dedicated to the Folgore aim to be a tribute to the rich history of the Brigade, from the legendary battle of El Alamein to the present day, covering engagements in Lebanon, the Vespri Siciliani, Somalia, Afghanistan and all the missions in which the Folgore has participated. This space is dedicated not only to military history enthusiasts but also to those who wish to understand the evolution and strategic importance of the Brigade in the context of international operations. By browsing the site, visitors can explore each unit that makes up the Brigade, discovering the peculiarities, skills, stories, and courage of the paratroopers also through books and texts as well as the music inspired by their heroic deeds.

The special forces

A section is dedicated to the Special Forces, offering an insight into the elite units that operate in the most risky and complex missions, demonstrating Italian excellence in the context of special operations. For 50 years, the Folgore has been involved in special operations on behalf of the Italian Army thanks to the 9th Assault Regiment Col Moschin and the 185th RRAO in recent years. The evolution of the Italian Army allowed these units to transition, in 2014, together with the 4th Alpine Paratroopers Regiment, under a single unit at the Brigade level, the COMFOSE (Army Special Forces Command). It seemed therefore appropriate, also for the context in which they operate, namely as highly strategic units for the interest and defense of the nation, to dedicate a section to them.

The uniform of others

"The uniform of others" is the space where curiosity meets admiration for other Italian military specialties. A journey among the units that, although different from us, share the same spirit of sacrifice and dedication to the Homeland. Alpini, Bersaglieri, Lagunari, Sassari Infantry and Ariete Brigade Tankers.

Current events, News and Blog

One of the new features of the site is the current events section, which hosts the blog and the news with original articles and insights on the Brigade, the world of defense and security.

Zona Paraca: the Community

"Zona Paraca" represents the beating heart of our site: a social space where paratroopers of every era can meet, share experiences, memories, and create a network of support and brotherhood. A virtual community that reflects the esprit de corps and belonging that have always characterized the paratroopers of the Folgore. In the FamigliaFolgore section you can search for a fellow soldier by badge number, unit, batch number, etc... In FotoFolgore you can upload photos of your time in the Heroic Brigade.

Conclusion

The new site brigatafolgore.net is not just an informative platform but a meeting place for those who, inside and outside the uniform, feel the pride and passion for the Folgore Paratroopers Brigade. A project that, in respect of the glorious history of our unit, looks to the future, promoting the culture of defense and the value of service for Italy.

Welcome to the new era of brigatafolgore.net!
