

Frecce Tricolori: Where to Follow Their Airshows in 2025

Published on 24/05/2025

The Frecce Tricolori, the legendary Italian aerobatic team, are one of the most admired aerial formations in the world, so much so that in 2022 they earned a spot in the Guinness World Records as the military aerobatic team performing the flight display with the highest number of aircraft, a total of 10. This year, the PAN (Pattuglia Acrobatica Nazionale) celebrates the 65th anniversary of its founding, bringing a tradition of emotions and spectacle to the skies that has captivated tens of thousands of enthusiasts and numerous fan clubs.

Airshows and Flyovers: The Two Thrills of the PAN

The performances of the Frecce Tricolori are divided into two main modes:

1. Airshow: A spectacular aerobatic display lasting about 25 minutes, adapted to the characteristics of the location and weather conditions. During these airshows, the pilots perform extraordinary maneuvers that leave the audience breathless.
2. Flyovers: Another unmissable moment, where the team paints a 5-kilometer-long tricolor in the sky, a distinctive feature of national celebrations, sporting events like the Giro d'Italia and Formula 1, and festivities.
