

Gen. C.A. (ret.) Paratrooper Commando Marco Bertolini re-elected president of the National Association of Italian Paratroopers

Published on 22/04/2024

General C.A. (ret.) Paratrooper Commando Marco Bertolini has been re-elected as National President of the National Association of Italian Paratroopers (ANPDI), confirming his role for the fourth consecutive term. The elections took place during the ANPDI National Assembly, held on April 20, 2024, at the Army Logistics Base in Cecina.

The voting session saw the participation of numerous members of the association and benefited from institutional interventions by figures such as Lieutenant Colonel Gianfranco Paglia, M.O.V.M., and the Deputy Commander of the Folgore Paratroopers Brigade, Colonel Massimo Veggetti.

The Executive Board, reconfirmed for the new term, includes prominent figures such as National Vice President, General B. (ret.) Par. Inc. Raffaele Iubini, Secretary General, General B. (ret.) Par. Enrico Pollini, Administrative Secretary, Doctor Mario Margara, and National Technical Secretary, Lawyer Alberto Benatti.

The event highlighted the excellent direction of the President of the Assembly, Professor Valter Sergo, and the fundamental contribution of the Section Presidents from all over the national territory who, with their participation and commitment, gave a strong signal of vitality to the Association.

The re-election testifies to the trust and continuous support that General Bertolini receives from the paratrooper community, reflecting his constant commitment to promoting the interests of the association's members.

To General Bertolini, a historic Officer of the Folgore and Italian special forces for almost half a century, we extend our best wishes for the reconfirmation of his position as President of the ANPdl.

Folgore, Sir Commander!

Source: <https://assopar.it/2024/04/20/il-gen-bertolini-rieletto-presidente-nazionale-dellanpdi/>