

Sudden illness, Paratrooper Davide Dalla Pria dies at just 32 Years

Published on 23/04/2024

The Great Family of the Folgore was struck yesterday by a tragic and sudden news regarding the passing of Paratrooper Davide Dalla Pria, serving in the 8th Paratrooper Sapper Regiment Folgore, who died due to cardiac arrest. Dalla Pria, originally from Ospedaletto (Padua), had turned 32 on October 4th last.

Known for his dedication to the uniform and strong sense of belonging to the Paratrooper specialty, Dalla Pria was in Rome to attend a refresher course. In addition to serving at the prestigious unit in Legnago, he was also an ANPdl Instructor, thanks to which, in 2014, he approached Parachuting at the Ferrara section.

We also learn from the ANPdl website that he was a member of his unit's team tasked with restoring the Paratroopers Monument in Saronno, vandalized by unknown individuals about a year ago.

BRIGATAFOLGORE.NET joins the grief of the family, friends, and colleagues for the premature passing of Davide.

Paratrooper Davide Dalla Pria! Present!

Folgore!